Halacha of the Week	Eating before davening is only forbidden if one is eating for pleasure. One who is ill may eat before davening. Even if he can wait until after davening, he is not required to do so, because he is eating for medicinal reasons (Shulchan Aruch 89:3). Taking vitamins is also permitted before davening. If one is hungry or thirsty to the extent that it disturbs his concentration, he may eat. Children, even those who have reached the age of chinuch, are allowed to eat before davening.
